SOUTHERN WOMEN EAGER FOR BALLOT

Activity Apparent Where State Laws Do Not Bar Registration.

NEGROES LACK INTEREST

Suffragists in Arkansas Hasten to Pay Poll Tax to Acquire Vote.

In an effort to ascertain the situation in the Southern States with regard to the interest being taken in suffrage by the white and negro women THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD asked its correspondents for summaries of the conditions in the different States. The results are appended:

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 21.—Suffrage inspection the number of qualified voters in Texas from 750,000 to approximately 2,500,000. The poll tax prerequisite for voting is nullified because of the fact that it would be discriminatory under the new amendment as applying to the 1,750,000 men and women who have not paid it, according to the opinion of the Attorney General.

The women of the State were given the right to vote in primary elections two years ago. There has been no registration law in effect in Texas heretofore, and if one is passed by the Legislature it will be applicable to men and women irrespective of color, otherwise it would be unconstitutional, it is asserted. It is thought comparatively few negroes would register, as their vote in elections for the past several years has been negligible.

MISSISSIPPI WOMEN CAN'T VOTE THIS YEAR

Four Months' Registration Law Bars Them From Polls.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 21.—The women of Mississippi do not seem to be in any hurry to register, due partly to the fact that they cannot vote this year on account of the legal requirement that they shall have registered four months prior to the date of election. After Tennessee and Connecticut had ratified the Nineteenth Amendment it was too late to come within the four months' registration law.

To date the Hindu County Register (Republican) says that fifty-six women have registered, only one of those being a negro. It has been known all along that the great majority of the women of Mississippi cared nothing about the ballot, but it is supposed that in course of time and in response to the importunities of candidates for office they will pay their $2 poll tax and get their names on the voting lists.

Similar reports as to the registration of women come from other counties, and it is not believed here that more than two or three thousand have registered in all the counties. That guess is based on the fact that there are perhaps more women around the Capitol who want to vote than in any other county. Two of

NEGRO WOMEN IGNORE BALLOT IN LOUISIANA

1,000 Suffragists Register in New Orleans.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 21.—Practically no negro women have attempted to register in Louisiana. A few appeared at the registration office here but were promptly challenged by watchers and less than a dozen registered. About 1,000 white women have registered in New Orleans, and approximately 300 have registered in the country parts of the State. Twenty-five registration clerks were turned away from the women's registration office in Washington Artillery Hall Saturday to make room for women clerks, whose appointment was demanded by women suffrage leaders of the city and State.

When plans were first made to register women suffrage leaders approached Registrar William A. Bell to have women represented among the clerks. Registrar Bell asked that the women wait until next year, as many of his clerks were familiar with the work and he felt it would hinder the speed of registration if inexperienced women were put in to handle the blanks.

WOMEN ACTIVE IN CITY ELECTION IN RALEIGH

Represent Over One-fourth Total Registration.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 21.—North Carolina's regular registration books do not open until September 30, and in only one city has there been a registration of women. Raleigh closed the books today for a school election which will be held October 2. The proposal is a school tax of 10 cents on property and 30 cents on the poll. Of 2,350 voters who registered 753 are women.

Fewer than fifty negroes, women and men, registered for this election, and in nearly all North Carolina communities reporting prospective women voters it is declared that neither negro women nor men seem to care for the vote. The east was almost solidly against woman suffrage, but many women will vote. The Democrats fear greatly for Senator Overman and Cameron Morrison, Senatorial and gubernatorial candidates this year, as each opposed suffrage in the primaries after the State convention endorsed ratification. Both are heartily begging the women for their support.

WOMEN REGISTERING HEAVILY IN VIRGINIA

Enough in Richmond to Swing Municipal Election.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 21.—Women of the Equal Suffrage League of Richmond and their first experience as registrars yesterday when two prominent league leaders, Mrs. Frank L. Johnson and Mrs. Carter W. Wormeley, sworn in as deputies, distinguished themselves by scoring each a higher record than the fastest male worker. Of the total of 578 feminine voters enrolled Mrs. Johnson accepted 193 and Mrs. Wormeley 134.

There was a separation of the races at registration offices, only white women registering with equal suffrage representatives. Negro women protested clamorously against refusal of the registrar to swear in as deputies several of their number who tendered their services.

More than one hundred negro women were in line waiting to register when the doors closed for the day. Mrs. Wormeley discovered at the close of the day that she had been robbed of her silk vanity bag, $15 in cash and a package of important papers. The money and valuables were stolen from a table at which she was enrolling women.

The total of the city's registered feminine vote rose to 2,450 yesterday, sufficient to swing any municipal election held in the last decade, if polled solidly. The total of negro women's vote enrolled was approximately 450.

REGISTRATION LAW BARS GEORGIA WOMEN

Few Whites Desire Ballot, Is Opinion.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 21.—No women have registered to vote in Georgia because under the State law the registration books closed last spring. Because of this law women will not be eligible to vote in the November election unless the Legislature is called in special session to pass an enabling act. It was proposed that the women should vote in the recent Georgia primary and the Attorney-General of the State held that they were entitled to vote, as the Federal suffrage amendment had already been ratified. The State Executive Committee, however, took a contrary view and held that women could not vote because they had not complied with the Georgia registration law. Lawyers generally differ with the Attorney-General, holding that despite the proclamation of the ratification of the suffrage amendment the Georgia law relating to qualifications for franchise still stand and must be complied with.

Unless the Governor calls a special session of the Legislature to provide for voting by women they may cast no ballots in November. Even should an enabling act be passed the indications are that very few women would avail themselves of the privilege of voting. It is generally conceded that comparatively few white women in Georgia care for the ballot.

It is believed, however, that many negro women would register if given the opportunity.

ARKANSAS WOMEN PAY POLL TAX TO REGISTER

Whites Outnumber Negroes at Polls by 50 to 1.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 21.—Arkansas has no registration law, but all voters are required to pay a poll tax of $1. White and negro women in large numbers have paid poll taxes all through the State. The white women outnumber the negroes by about 50 to 1.

FLORIDA WOMEN SHOW VERY LITTLE INTEREST

Negroes Represent 40 Per Cent. of Registration.

SPECIAL TO THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 21.—White women and negro women are about breaking even in Duval county and Jacksonville. The total registration to date is 7,700, of which number 3,385 are negroes.

Reports from practically all the cities and counties in Florida state that the registration of negro women is about 40 per cent. of the total woman registration.

The Governor-elect of Florida, Gary D. Hardee, Attorney-General Van C. Swearingen and a number of the most prominent Democratic leaders in the State have urged white women to take advantage of the suffrage and register in order that the white registration may be greater than the negro registration.

Registration officially ends October 9. Ten thousand white women are eligible to vote in Duval county and Jacksonville, which is the county seat. In the State at large approximately 230,000 women are eligible to vote. Women are showing very little interest in the registration.

FOCH CABLES HE'LL COME.

Marshal Foch reaffirmed his intention of visiting the United States in a cable message received yesterday by Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty of the Knights of Columbus. "I wish to express my most cordial thanks," the Marshal said, "for the aid and example given by the Knights of Columbus, and I sincerely hope to see your work in America with my own eyes. Ferdinand Foch."

Mr. Flaherty declared the Knights of Columbus would lend their aid to stamping out any anti-France propaganda that might exist in the United States.

West Shore Train Hits INDIANA Truck at Orangeburg, N.Y. on July 8th

Truck proceeds in spite of terrific impact, picks up load of pipe and returns to garage in New York City 20 minutes late.

A SHARP curve hid the train as this 5-ton INDIANA TRUCK ran out upon the West Shore tracks near Orangeburg, N. Y.

The driver "gave her the gas" and jumped just as the huge engine struck head on—backed by the force of mail and baggage cars and ten full passenger coaches running at 25 miles an hour.

The wooden body of the truck was splintered, the steel frame twisted almost at right angles and the truck rebounded to the track, tearing up the heavy rails for several yards.

Miraculously the driver, Max Hecht, escaped alive. He says: "Imagine my surprise when I found that the truck was able to proceed under its own power." He proceeded to his destination, picked up a load of pipe and drove to New York.

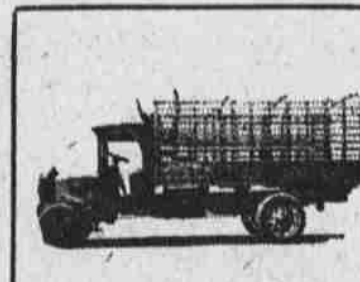

Reporting to the INDIANA Service Station, he was astonished to learn that the running gear of the truck was absolutely uninjured.

The frame, twisted nearly at right angles by the terrific impact of the collision, showed not a single crack.

More remarkable still, the rear axle was in perfect condition.

This accident gives you an actual picture of what "112% Reserve Strength" means in INDIANA TRUCKS. Do you know of any other truck which can survive a collision with a twelve-car express train running at 25 miles an hour?

This super-strength of the INDIANA—its ability to stand all punishment—is one of the reasons why the INDIANA has made a permanent home for itself in New York.

The 5-ton INDIANA TRUCK owned by the Cunard Motor Truck Company of New York as it appeared before the accident on July 8th.

The same truck after collision with the express train—able to pick up a load and proceed under its own power.
